WALL Will be Buzzing With Classes in March and the WALL Board Needs You

Dear Members,

Spring is just around the corner. Many of us are looking forward to warmer weather and more great classes at WALL. There are still seats available in the following classes: Film Genre, Georgia History, Landscape Oil Painting, Macon Trailblazing Musicians for 50's and 60's, and Trees and Shrubs of the Southeast.

WALL depends on volunteers who work behind the scenes to organize and plan for the courses we offer. Some of those volunteers, as well as our coordinator from Wesleyan, are pictured below at a recent combined WALL board and curriculum committee meeting. We want to invite all of you to participate on the WALL board by running for a variety of offices for the coming year.

The elections will be held at the General Meeting in May. The vacant offices include the following: President-Elect, Curriculum Chair-Elect, and Membership Chair-Elect. If chosen for these offices, you will have an entire year to learn all about the duties required before assuming that office.

Please contact Jon Wolfe at 478-477-8332 if you are interested in running or want more information about any of the offices or if you have any other questions. All the current board members and their contact information are on page 4 of this newsletter

See you on campus
